structions from aune huldoon when of arrived. I returned here and packed up the materials for the NPG+LHR- mailing and went back over to tree Library and collated and stapled the mailing piece and inserted most of them in the envelopes. Anne and Joan Corgrove left at SPM and Job and I were alone in the CPL. I had my Sony walkman with me and listened to mabler's Symphony 205 as I worked and an John worked -dusting shelver and sweeping. At about 630 PM I went down to Donimuk's and bougut us some Stalion Subrand gunger ale and we ate that. As we dived, Mrs. Mozza (the former Cleaning person) came in and was startled to see JuD and of setting there. We introduced ourselves and everything was OK. John finished his work and then begants read railroad Guagaginer and monographe. I worked In the mailing prece for the microfilm copies of NPG+LHR. - Volumes I and II. at about 8 pm me left tue Library. JoB said ar me exited: "Well, d'un going to go see if a can find my friends (i.e., the friendr with whom he had been with In the afternoon). I ascended the stain at 13 P.P. and that was that. I worked at my desk for several hours and twen withdrew. among the records that I listened to in the course of the evening are Le Cog d'or, the Glenn Goved prano transcription of the Siegfried Idyll, and the orchestral suite from Berlioz's Romes et Juliette. Mery enjoyable. Faythe called around eleven and we Chatted for about to minuter. She had to give me the complete report as the renovation of her bathroom. Sed & think that she showed have the tub replaced? I agreed with her: Keep two and tub. and so forth. I withdrew around 1230 or 1 AM and ded not work up for 8 1/2 hours - nery un usual. It in now 1:57PM on Saturday, September 17, 1983.
